Vicious Dogs Ordinance Needed

Sheriff Halverson and Prosecuting Attorney Cannon met with the Board to discuss the need for an ordinance addressing vicious dogs. Cannon will contact the cities for their support.

Designated Exams

Prosecuting Attorney Cannon also addressed the situation regarding the availability of someone to conduct our designated exams. Dr. Rogers has been doing most of them but he is finding that the low volume makes it difficult for him to justify paying $350/month for that liability insurance. Cannon will discuss the matter with Carl Hanson, Minidoka Memorial Hospital Administrator.

Assessor's Office

Assessor Vaughn reported to the Board the status of his office's work on getting caught up on the assessments.

Minutes Approved

The Board approved the Minutes of April 14, 2008 with no changes.

Having no further business to come before the Board, the meeting was adjourned at 10:40 AM.

DANIEL STAPELMAN, Chairman
